

requested me to resign, which of course, I disdainfully refused to do in face of such base
charges, You then discharged me.

This scandalous and false charge rises above all political question and is one of personal defamation between us. Had you asked me to resign I should have recognised your servility to some scurvy politicians
dictation and have acquiesced,
but when you seek such a pretence which you did,
or ought to have known was untrue you enter the forum

of slander and defamation.
I insist therefore that you prove your charge or retract it; which if you decline, or defer, doing you oblige me to resort to a jury of my fellow citizens for acquittal and request you to refer me to your legal adviser.

I have the honor to be

Your Most Obedt.

Edw. Walw. Jr.

Hon. Danl. M. Fox.

Leakinton. Pa.

Jan. 11/86

Edward Malm Jr.

Threatens to resort to a jury of his fellow Citizens for his acquittal

#4#

Hon. Danl. M. Fox.

U.S. Mint.

Philad^a

[Please note: some pages of letter are missing.]

[Abstract:] Threatens to resort to a Jury of this fellow citizens for his acquittal.

(3)

requested me to resign, which of course, I disdain fully refused to do in face of such base charges. You then discharged me.

The scandalous and false charge rises above all political question and is one of personal defamation between us. Had you asked me to resign, I should have recognized your servility to some scurvy politicians dictation and have acquiesced, but when you seek such a pretense which you did, or ought to have known was untrue you enter the forum of slander and defamation. I insist therefore that you prove your charge or retract it; which if you decline, or defer, doing you oblige me to resort to a Jury of my fellow citizens for acquittal and request you to refer me to your legal adviser.

I have the honor to be
Yours Most Obdt.
Edw. Waln Jr.

Hon. Danl. M. Fox